THE GRANDE WEDDINGS SHOWCASE PRESENTING DISTINCTIVE WEDDING SHOWS

A new and eagerly anticipated national wedding tour is coming to the UK in April 2015 with two of the UK's most distinctive wedding shows.

The Grande Weddings Showcase will debut its iconic wedding shows at the new ARENA: MK, Milton Keynes on Saturday 4 and Sunday 5 April and the following weekend at Westfield's Atrium, White City, London on Saturday 11 and Sunday 12 April. Both shows promise to offer a "unique experience unlike anything seen in the industry."

Featuring the spectacular floating catwalk, Vintage Boutiques, VIP Lounges, Champagne Bars, a Bridal Boudoir, Beauty Zones and much more, The Grande Weddings Showcase aims to attract tens of thousands of people from across the UK.

At the ARENA:MK, guests can sample modern fusion cuisine in the Grande Dining Experience, English tea and sandwiches at the High Tea Café, indulge in the Champagne Bar or reserve a seat in the Style It Yourself hub and learn top secrets tips by the leaders in the wedding industry. For the quirky and individual, The Vintage Boutique is a must for the bride in love with everything vintage.

One of the key features of the show is the glamorous upper floor, the Bridal Boudoir. The luxurious setting is the ultimate in pure indulgence where the bride-to-be will be waited on hand and foot. The most beautiful dresses and delectable shoes will be presented by a team of stylists with lavish changing suites and grand mirrors to reflect your perfect wedding day vision.

At Westfield, London, the floating catwalk will be the talk of the industry as it hangs beautifully in the Atrium and showcases three stunning runways each day; lined with the most glamorous and fashionable wedding attire. VIP guests can view these shows from the balconies and private VIP Lounge where brides can take a seat in the designer emporium, enjoy the finest catering, the GWS signature cocktail and an extra luxe VIP bag. London will also feature a Vintage Boutique and Champagne Bar plus 100 of London's finest wedding industry specialists, venues, cars, cakes, photography and more will be in attendance.

Marisse Justin, co-Founder of The Grande Weddings Showcase believes the events recognise a gap in the wedding market, she said: "We have researched wedding shows all across the industry we completely believe The Grande Weddings Showcase tour offers a very unique experience. From the moment you walk into the event you will realise you are part of something special; this feeling will continue throughout the duration of the day.

"We pay particular attention to every detail. Each show is a whole day experience, somewhere you can relax, unwind and be treated to some of the most sensational trends in the wedding industry.

"We have some very exciting exhibitors and speakers to announce, which we will do in the coming months but all the latest and breaking news will come from our social media channels."
